

Opinion: Comedian Jess Salomon's Charter of Montreal values

BY JESS SALOMON, SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE NOVEMBER 22, 2013

Montreal stand-up comedian Jess Salomon has drafted Bill 60.2, a Charter of Montreal Values.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

The purpose of this Bill is to establish a Charter affirming the values of multiculturalism, bilingualism, and providing a framework for not accommodating unreasonable requests from Quebec City.

A further purpose of this Bill is to specify that Montréal is a distinct society made up of other distinct societies, made up of yet other distinct societies. We are all snowflakes inside of a Russian doll. Some of us are men that wear cut-off jean shorts at La Ronde; some of us like veils; some of us sport saris; and yes, some of us are actual Russian dolls looking for citizenship and "massage" clients. We do not judge. Overtly.

A further, further purpose of this Bill is to recall that equality between men and women and the separation of Church and State are guaranteed in the Canadian and Quebec Charters of Rights and Freedoms. Any legislation purporting to do the same thing is an unnecessary distraction from the economy and waste of taxpayer dollars. Montréal further rejects any legislative exercise that involves taking away rights to guarantee rights, because although we spend a lot of time at outdoor street festivals taking photos of clowns on stilts, we know a farce when we see one.

A further, further, further purpose of this Bill is to recall that religion is not contagious. You cannot catch religion from a circumcised penis, a halal kebab, or even from being treated at the Hôtel Dieu, although it is possible to catch religion in prison.

Lastly, the Provincial Government is required to identify an actual problem before legislating a solution. Parti Québécois policy will be accommodated when it is reasonable, that is when it is not formulated on the basis of paranoid delusions or for cynical political gain. Despite what Bill 60 seems to suggest, our only options are not pork at the cabane à sucre OR being ruled by Sharia Law.

There is no transition period. Bill 60.2 is to be implemented immediately. Anyone failing to implement this Bill is liable to be sentenced to a strict pure laine lifestyle including, but not limited to, a prohibition on access to hot ethnic people and hip hop.
