JESS SALOMON

IMO

(IN MY OPINION)

Written by Jess Salomon

OFF Venue: Theatre St Catherine - June 12-22, various times

Jess Salomon hits the Fringe for her third time this summer and she's getting political. IMO (In My Opinion) dares to ask, among other things, what if kale isn't really a super food? Seriously you guys, what if we're all eating that roided-up lettuce for no reason at all!

After a winter in which her satire of the Charter of Values went viral, her contributions to multiple Facebook comment threads had people responding "well, that's just my opinion" i.e. admitting defeat, and her appearances on Sun News Network had people asking, "Sun News, really?" Jess is ready to take her views to the stage! Chief among them: Not all opinions are created equal.

IMO touches on the politics of Canada, Quebec, the Middle East, language and sex ... because hey, it's STAND UP COMEDY MOM AND DAD, but it also deals with the way we form our opinions and get our information. IMO asks the question: Oh really? Where'd you hear that? And then offers the answer: Was it from Jess Salomon, because if so, you are correct!

When you can't trust the media, the Government or the old lady next door, whose opinion can you trust? Jess Salomon is none of those things (yet). So, pull up a chair, tune-in, and behold the only truly reasonable opinions out there. Jess Salomon's.

The Montreal Metro has called her comedy "charming and intelligent"; The Charlebois Post wrote in 2011 "I can see her getting even better with time"; and The Link said this, "makes you think after you get past the laughs". All of these opinions are right.

Choose IMO at the summer's Fringe and be a part of the solution. IMO is 18+ but if you bring a baby, Jess will kiss it, if it's cute.
